Editor's Message & Association Schedules

Erika Kenner
Editor

I may be a little biased, but I think we have some of the best cattle and the best people in the nation in the Dakota's, as evidenced by this issue! First of all, the quality of cattle in both the North Dakota and South Dakota State sales looks better than ever. Eberspacher's have worked hard to put together a tremendous set in South Dakota and Jeff Thomas has more consignments than ever before and many are new consignors in North Dakota.

Secondly, both state associations worked together to accommodate schedule conflicts and were able to compromise. So please take note of the new sale dates this year. They should stay this way for a long time now. South Dakota Simmental Association has moved to the 3rd weekend of December, which used to be the North Dakota State Sale. The North Dakota Simmental Association has collaborated with the North Dakota Red Angus Association to share the 2nd weekend of December.

Which brings me to my final point, the people in the Dakota's are there to help each other. It truly is a family and is one of the reasons the State Association sales are so successful. By being supportive of each other, it creates a positive atmosphere, which is appreciated by buyers as well! I want to commend all the breeders and consignors for being so encouraging and supportive of one another. Let's keep moving forward in the cattle business as leaders!

I wish everyone a happy holiday season and look forward to visiting at the events in December!

Sincerely,

Erika

BICHLER ATTENDS NEW LEADERSHIP PROGRAM WITH THE KING RANCH® INSTITUTE FOR RANCH MANAGEMENT

During the 2014 National Cattlemen's Beef Association (NCBA) convention and trade show, North Dakota Simmental Association member, Doug Bichler, Linton, ND, participated in a new leadership program offered by the King Ranch® Institute for Ranch Management (KRIRM).

The Excellence in Ag Leadership Program is a two-year course that will further develop the next generation of leaders in the ranching industry. Bichler, along with 17 other participants were selected and identified as high potential leaders with assistance from NCBA. They will complete the unique, distance-education program, which is designed to help them identify, understand, and capitalize on their unique strengths to develop personal, organizational, and community leadership skills.

To do so, Bichler and other participants will attend KRIRM lectureships in Kingsville, Texas, on the topics of Systems Thinking, Human Resources Management, and Strategic Planning. These lectureships utilize top experts in the ranching industry, ultimately allowing for the participants to become greater leaders to make a positive impact on the industry. They will also participate in webinars with industry leaders and attend individual leadership development training.

The program began at NCBA with a one-day leadership workshop where participants received the results of their personal 360-leadership assessment completed by their managers, co-workers, peers, and direct reports. The assessment identified the unique leadership strengths of each participant. The leadership of KRIRM and NCBA expressed great optimism for the program and potential impact these 18 individuals will have as they lead the ranching industry in the future.

Doug Bichler

KRIRM, founded in 2003 to commemorate the 150th anniversary of King Ranch, is the only master's program in the world that offers a Master of Science in Ranch Management. The vision of the program is to educate leaders who will make a positive difference in ranching, and ensure that the ranching heritage is not lost. KRIRM also provides the highest quality lectureships and symposia to stakeholders in the ranching industry. To learn more about KRIRM visit <http://krirm.tamuk.edu>.

What's Happening at ASA?

South Dakota member donates heifer to support ASA Foundation

Werning Cattle Company, Dale & Joan and family, Emery, SD, are donating a heifer to the American Simmental Simbrah Foundation to be auctioned during The One Sale in Denver. The Werning's join an elite list of breeders who have donated the heifer to the Foundation. The One Sale is January 19, 2015.

There's an App for that! Download the New ASA App!

There is now a free App for the iPhone and the Droid for American Simmental Association. American Simmental Mobile allows members to search Herdbook Services and includes the Have You Herd blog for updates on DNA and THE and the tReg blog with current articles from the magazine.

Sign up for Blogs and Stay Informed!

The American Simmental Association has made communication with the members easier by adding blogs to the website. Leoma Wells, who is in charge of DNA and THE, uses her blog to update members on anything new and what time frames to expect for DNA turnaround. This blog will be especially helpful to those preparing for bull sales this winter and spring.

To subscribe to her blog, click on, Have you Herd, on the American Simmental Association homepage and at the bottom of the page, click Follow. You will then receive emails when she posts anything new. If you do not wish to subscribe, you can still see what has been posted on the site anytime.

Other ways to stay informed:

ASA Science Forum - moderated by Jackie Atkins, PHD and Lauren Hyde, PHD.

Herd Data Makes Cents – information on ASA data submission, news, deadlines and events.

tReg – The latest stories in the Register with more information.

eNews – weekly informational newsletter
Sales Call – Bi-monthly upcoming sales and events delivered by email.

AJSA Newsletter – informs on AJSA events and happenings.

THE Deadline Approaching

The deadline to submit your inventory for Total Herd Enrollment is December 15, 2014 to take advantage of the lowest enrollment fees possible. Enrollment opened October 15 and can be completed anytime. Once submitted, changes/adjustments can be made any time as much as needed with no penalties until December 15. For step-by-step instructions and a webinar, check out the “Have You Herd” blog on the American Simmental Association website.

American Simmental Association Board of Trustees Hosts Chili Tailgate in the Yards at 2015 National Western Stock Show

BOZEMAN, MT— When was the last time you had a chance to meet all of the Trustees on the Senior Board or share your thoughts with them about all things Simmental over a drink? On Saturday, January 17, 2015 from noon until the chili runs out the American Simmental Association (ASA) Board of Trustees invites ASA members, customers, and all SimGenetics supporters to a meet-and-greet in the Yards at the 2015 National Western Stock Show. Amid chili and beer, guests will have the opportunity to mingle with Trustees and ASA staff.

This is an informal gathering, with food to be served throughout the afternoon.

New Meeting Schedule at the National Western Stock Show

The American Simmental Association Board of Directors want to engage with the membership. To make it easier for the membership in attendance, the Board has changed the schedule of the meetings and social events in Denver to accommodate the membership.

NWSS Schedule:

8:00 am – 5:00 pm

Full Board Meeting – Double Tree Hotel

Saturday, January 17

Sunday, January 18

First Educational Symposium a Success!

Nearly 150 SimGenetic enthusiasts from 25 states and 2 Canadian provinces met in Bozeman September 8 for the First Annual Educational Symposium held in conjunction with the Fall ASA Board meeting. The Board met from September 8 – 11 and many of the Symposium attendees stayed for the meetings. Several North Dakota members were present, but for those who could not attend, the videos of most of the speakers are on the ASA website.

The goal is to include an Educational Symposium every year during the Fall Board meeting, but to move locations each year. States can apply to host each year. The applications have been emailed to all the State Associations, but are also available on the ASA website under Membership/State Associations. The deadline is December 1 each year.

is an exciting time to be in the cattle business! It is also exciting for me to share the status of our Junior Simmental Association as we look into the future of the organization and watch it grow! We have an increasing number of participants in our junior association and that is great to see! We currently have 40 members.

We had a very eventful summer and a great time at the State Fair. The futurity show was represented by another great set of heifers. Congratulations to all the participants in this summer's show! This year's state sale will be offering another fantastic group of heifers so I encourage everyone to come to the sale, which is December 13. Not only are you able to add top quality genetics to your herd, but any open heifer bought at the sale is eligible to be shown in the futurity show which takes place at the state fair. We have up to $2,000 in cash prizes for the winners! So that being said, make sure to come to the sale and find a heifer that will work in your program!

The ND Simmental Association banquet will be held on Friday, December 12, the night before the sale. We will be holding another auction to raise funds for the junior association. Donated items will be auctioned off during the banquet and proceeds will go towards the ND Junior Association.

Finally, I would like to thank the parents and everyone who donated time, effort & money to the association! We would not be where we are today without the generous help and support of many! I hope to see many of you soon and good luck in the coming months!

SDSA to Award 2 Scholarships

The South Dakota Simmental Association Board of Directors will award two $500 scholarships in 2015 to a 2015 graduating high school senior.

Applicants must have been raised on a ranch, registered or commercial, and have an interest in Simmental cattle. Applications are due December 1, 2014.

Download an application at www.southdakotasimmental.com or contact Jeremy Lehrman (windycreek@triotel.net or 605-530-5909) for more information.

Scholarships will be awarded at the South Dakota Annual Banquet on December 19, 2014, in Sioux Falls, SD.

NDSA Director Positions Open

The North Dakota Simmental Association has three positions open in December. All three have full-filled two 3-year terms and are not eligible for re-election. JR Aufforth (Northwest Region – now West Region), Kevin Elliott (Southeast Region – now East Region) and Luke Keller (Southwest Region – now West Region) are the positions opening. Since ND Simmental Association voted to redistrict in 2012, there is now an East and a West Region divided by Hwy 83.

Please let a Board member know or attend the meeting to voice your nomination on December 12, if you are interested in running for the Board. The board meets 3 times a year (January, April & September) plus the Annual Meeting in December.
